PARISH NEWSLETTER
29th April 2018 – Fifth Sunday of Easter

My dear friends

This Sunday many people from this deanery and from our diocese will gather at 2.45pm on Chalkwell beach near the Crowstone monument to pray the rosary. Why? The organisers say the day is aimed at a “re-flourishing of the faith, for the grace to build a culture of life and for true peace to reign in the hearts of all peoples and nations”. Last month Pope Francis sent his blessing to those taking part in the event. The nuncio, Archbishop Edward Adams, said he assured participants of his “spiritual closeness” and placed them “under the protection of Our Lady”. Of course many people will not be able to attend because they are at home. The prayers of the sick and housebound, wherever they are, will be of great value. In the end, prayer is prayer. It doesn’t matter where you are but St Louis Marie de Montfort said: “When people say the rosary together it is far more formidable to the Devil than one said privately, because in this public prayer it is an army that is attacking.” Please join us if you can.

Fr Graham

The timetable for the event is:

- 2.00-2.30pm Gather at Chalkwell Beach.
- 2.45pm Invocation of the Holy Spirit and Prayers of Protection
- 2.50pm Act of Contrition and Scripture Readings
- 3.00pm Glorious Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary
- 3.30pm Litany of Our Lady
- 3.40pm Prayer invoking St. Joseph
- 3.50pm Litany invoking Saints of the British Isles

Sacred Heart Church will be open from 2.00pm for those unable to get to the beach but wish to join in with the Rosary.

Exhibition on the Titanic and the Canonisation of Father Thomas Byles, at St Helen's Catholic Church, Chipping Ongar

In conjunction with the first Ongar Town Festival, there will be an exhibition on the Titanic and the canonisation of Father Thomas Byles, on Sunday 6th May from 10.30am to 5.00pm at St Helen's Church Ongar. Why not visit our beautiful little church where Fr Byles was Parish Priest from 1905 until his fateful death on 14th April 1912 while sailing on the infamous ship, the Titanic? Come and learn more about Father Byles and read about how we have started the process leading (hopefully) to his canonisation as a Saint. See the stained-glass window and the wooden door that are dedicated to his bravery and personal sacrifice on that fateful voyage. Just look for the driveway to the right of the Fire Station and venture up the path to the entrance to the Church. There, you will find a friendly smile and warm welcome waiting for you. Refreshments will be served in the courtyard (weather permitting) or in the church. We look forward to seeing you at St Helen's Church and in sharing our wonderful heritage in Ongar with the wider community

They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him. May their hearts live for ever and ever!
