PARISH NEWSLETTER
6th May 2018 – Sixth Sunday of Easter

My dear friends

Jesus in today's gospel passage tells us "What I command you, is to love one another". We, as members of the church, as disciples of Jesus, are chosen to be friends of Jesus, if we do what we are commanded by God. We are not to be called servants, because we know what God wants. But what does what God want us to do? To love one another! So simple, but how do we live this out? We must love each other in the church. There can be no room for distinctions of race or caste or gender. Even if people sin or misunderstand the faith somewhat, we are to love them, not despise them as second-rate. Fr Graham
